

Leadership Training Program

Internship Course June 20-June 25, 2010

Take advantage of this unique opportunity to spend time with some of today's most respected and accomplished business, political and cultural leaders. During this program, participating students visit the offices of executive leaders who share their advice for personal and professional success, emphasizing the importance of character and faith. At the close of each meeting, students have the opportunity to interview these leaders during Q&A sessions. In addition to meeting and spending time with executive-level leaders, participating students visit with successful leadership and management teams, and experience the sights and sounds of Washington D.C.
